

Figure 12. Location of tectonic features during the early Mesozoic Era (Triassic to Late Jurassic). Note the northeast-southwest trend of the Paleozoic features and how their southwest margin has been truncated by the Mesozoic magmatic arc and accreted terranes. Solid triangles mark the emplacement of major thrust belts with the triangles on the upper, hanging block of strata. Modified from Suppe, 1985.